Initial accounts – references

A list of all the sources of information in this guidance.

First published 24 November 2020
Written by College of Policing

Obtaining initial accounts

Practice guideline references

Rapport building

Witness separation

https://www.college.police.uk/guidance/obtaining-initial-accounts/references

Clarifying sources of information

Alcohol intoxication

https://www.college.police.uk/guidance/obtaining-initial-accounts/references

Witnesses’ own words and open questioning

• Luna, K., Martín-Luengo, B. (2012) Improving the accuracy of eyewitnesses in the presence of misinformation with the plurality option. Applied Cognitive Psychology, 26(5), pp 687-693.
Non-leading approach to questioning change in simulated forensic interviews. Personality and Individual Differences, 47(6), pp 642-646.

Allowing uncertainty

• Luna, K., Martín-Luengo, B. (2012) Improving the accuracy of eyewitnesses in the presence of misinformation with the plurality option. Applied Cognitive Psychology, 26(5), pp 687-693.

Suggesting eye closure

Advice on information exposure

• Higham, P.A., Luna, K., Bloomfield, J. (2011) Trace?strength and source?monitoring accounts of...

Community Psychology, 8(1), pp 134-142.

Strategic recommendation references

Building knowledge and skills

Use of self-administered interviews (SIAs)

Tags

Evidence-based policing