

Lancashire's PCC announces independent Nicola Bulley case review

Published on 22 February 2023

DCC Bernie O'Reilly, College of Policing Deputy CEO, gives statement on the independent review

News 1 min read

Lancashire's Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) Andrew Snowden has commissioned the College of Policing to undertake a full independent review.

All our thoughts remain with the family and friends of Nicola Bulley at this incredibly difficult time.

The College of Policing has been asked by the Lancashire Police and Crime Commissioner to carry out an independent review into how the force handled the investigation into the disappearance of Nicola Bulley.

The work to commence the review will start immediately.

DCC Bernie O'Reilly, College of Policing Deputy CEO

Tags

Operational policing Missing persons