Vulnerability-related risks - Guidance overview

How to recognise and respond to risks when working with vulnerable people

First published 14 March 2024

2 mins read

These guidelines focus on supporting officers and staff to:

- recognise individuals at risk of harm
- better understand the vulnerabilities of all those they encounter, rather than thinking about risk in relation to individual forms of harm, such as child abuse or domestic violence in isolation
- interact with vulnerable people in a way that maximises opportunities for disclosure

The guidelines consist of:

- one strategic-level guideline for chief officers
- three practical guidelines for police responders
